March 21, 51.

Dear Dr. Federburg:

I owe you an apology for failing to thank you for your interesting letter which came just as I was in a frantic struggle to finish my annual report to the A.E.C. before leaving for a meeting in New York.

After that I met my family in St. Louis and drove down here for a short vacation.

I'll write you in more detail when I get back next week.

In the mean time, many thanks & best wishes!

Sincerely yours,
Philip Miller.
